

The Capital Region Archives Dinner Committee, a program of Capital Area Archivists of New York (CAANY) in co-operation with the NYS Archives Partnership Trust, is proud to present the Nineteenth Annual Capital Region Archives Dinner at the Stockade Inn in downtown Schenectady, NY.

www.stockadeinn.com

Directions from I-890 in Schenectady

From I-890 westbound, take Exit 4C north to the light and go straight onto Washington Avenue north for one block, turning right onto Union Street. The Stockade Inn will be on your left on the next corner (North Church St.) From I-890 eastbound, take exit 4B and bear left for Washington Avenue, proceeding as above.

For further information about the Archives Dinner, please visit our website, e-mail us at kan331@aol.com, or call (518) 767-2980.

Capital Area Archivists of New York is the not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization serving the archival community in our region. To learn more about CAANY, visit www.capitalarchivist.org

You may also join CAANY by including the payment of our modest $5 annual dues with your reservation!

Our speaker for 2014 will be Thomas R. Porter (also called Sakokwenionkwes), the founder, spokesperson, and spiritual leader of the Mohawk Community of Kanatsiohareke, who will speak on documenting Mohawk history and culture.

The Archives Dinner Committee is also pleased to recognize individuals and organizations who or which have made significant contributions to the preservation and enhancement of local archives as part of our annual celebration.

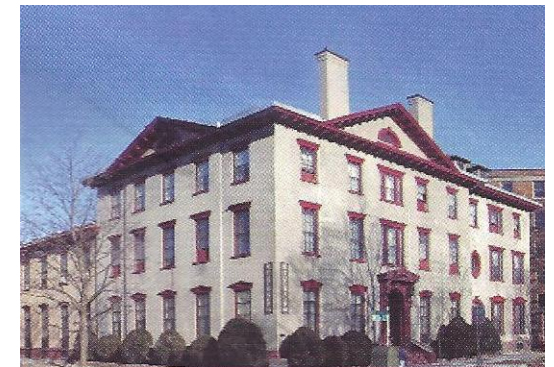

Last year, we recognized the achievements of Dr. Ivan Steen of UAlbany, Julie C. Daniels of State Archives, and Thomas G. Clingan, Albany County Clerk.

In recent years, we have honored the New York Military Museum, the Conference on New York State History, Dr. Marilyn J. VanDyke, CSEA's 100th Anniversary, the Clifton Park/Halfmoon Library and Clifton Park Town Historian John Scherer, the GE Elfun Society Volunteers, the Researching New York Conference, Susan McLane, Elaine Wheeler, Robert W. Arnold III, Andrew Raymond, Jan Allen, the late Albert Fowler, Len Tantillo, and Hon. Kathleen Newkirk.
